- Police “Refuse To Be A Victim”

"Refuse to be a Victim" is a four-hour crime prevention seminar providing, over two evening sessions, a variety of information to help you become pro-active about your personal safety. This seminar presented by the Police Department will teach you how to minimize your risk of being a victim, how to create a personalized safety plan -- before it is needed-- and an array of personal safety strategies. Seminar topics include home security, automobile security, technological security and mental preparedness. Participants will receive a comprehensive workbook to take home. This course will be from 6 to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct.1 and Thursday, Oct. 2. Both classes will be at the Foothills Police Substation, 6255 W. Union Hills Drive.

- Recycling Center Tour

Glendale's recycling program is one way for residents to help conserve natural resources and extend the life of the landfill by diverting recyclables out of the waste stream. Please join us for this informative class, which includes a tour of Glendale's Recycling Center. This course will be from 9 to 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, Oct. 9. Students will meet at the recycling center and landfill located at 11480 W. Glendale Ave.
